PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SPO to Launch Debut Concert

PETALING JAYA, 16 June 2012 - Of cracked bows, broken strings and countless hours, the Selangor Philharmonic Orchestra (SPO) proudly presents to you "Chapter One: The Unveil".

The Selangor Philharmonic Orchestra (SPO) was established with the objective of gathering musicians to share the joy of making music. Also, SPO aims to nurture and encourage the public in their appreciation towards the music world, especially symphonic music.

Penggerak Belia Tempatan PeBT is a body founded to instill leadership qualities within the youth such that they would become agents of change to the society in MBPJ. About 24 youths have taken leadership roles to represent the 12 MBPJ local authorities' administrative zones.

Having collaborated with Penggerak Belia Tempatan MBPJ (PeBT) Zon 2, SPO will be having their debut concert in 16 June 2012 (Saturday). The concert will be held at the MBPJ Civic Hall, Jalan Yong Shook Lin and will commence at 8.00 p.m.

The members in SPO fall into the youth age category, from as young as 10 years old to 23 years old. The orchestra will be under the baton of Chan Ling Chee, who is an experienced music teacher who specializes in piano and cello as well.

This concert will feature cello player James Ng Wen Hao, who was under tutelage of Chan Ling Chee, and currently furthering his studies in Yong Siu Toh Conservatory of Music, Singapore. He was the Principal Cellist at the Malaysian Philharmonic Youth Orchestra (MPYO). He will be performing the First Movement from Dvořák's Cello Concerto in B minor.

The concert will also feature works such as Beethoven's Egmont Overture, Grieg's Holberg Suite, Schubert's Fifth Symphony and a medley featuring the soundtrack from Pirates of the Caribbean by Hans Zimmer.

Ticket invites to the concert are priced at RM 10, RM15 and RM30 for the Yellow, Blue and Red seats. The dress code for the event is smart casual.
